EVENTS

Friday, October 7

6—7pm: Opening Reception with Exhibitors —Catch up with colleagues and take a pulse of the industry's latest products and solutions. While you mingle and browse the booths enjoy our light hors d'oeuvres. The reception is included with your conference registration and guest tickets are available to purchase for your guests.

Friday, October 7 through Sunday, October 9

Our tradeshow is the perfect opportunity to connect with an array of industry representatives. Exhibitors will showcase their products and services in the ballroom at select times during the symposium.

Saturday, October 8 (Open to AKVMA Members Only)

5:30pm Annual Membership Meeting - Keep connected and hear from our AVMA guests, learn about AKVMA's activities over the past year and meet the candidates running for board positions. An election of officers (President-Elect and Member-At-Large) will be conducted during the meeting and members will have the opportunity to vote.

NOT A MEMBER? You can still join for 2022.

We believe that being a veterinarian is more than just a profession. We are a community of individuals who are committed to advancing the cause of organized veterinary medicine in our state. Learn more at www.akvma.org
